made it sydney guys, 10 years since i was last here. I had one of those small world experiences on the flight from Bangkok to Sydney - the girls i was sitting beside, Justine, her mate Richard Barber is from Stranraer and went to school with Rachel! Anyway it just an interim up date, one more flight to catch and i'll be in NZ. Cant wait to finally get there and see all the things i,ve been imagineing for the last 10 years, mind you i dont suppose kiwi cows look any differnt in a a kiwi field than they do in a scottish one!
